USCAL National Council Member Requirements

(as revised on 28th March 2016)

USCAL National Council members represent USCAL as the primary ambassadors of the movement. As such, every National Council member should:

1. Be a leader in the church or marketplace and have regional and/or national influence
2. Be (or become) a member of USCAL
3. Plan to attend the annual ICAL Congress, a gathering usually held every November in Dallas, TX
4. Plan to attend the annual USCAL National Council meeting, a gathering usually held every June
5. Be willing to host or co-host a USCAL event, such as a Summit or Conference, once every year
6. Participate in several conference calls annually, usually scheduled as necessary
7. Be proactive in recruiting other potential members into USCAL
